

A stylized, colorful illustration of a cityscape. The background is a bright blue sky with a large yellow sun in the top right corner and a pink cloud in the top left. In the foreground, there are rolling green hills and a brown path. The city features several buildings: a tall purple skyscraper, a purple building with horizontal stripes, a purple domed structure, and a red building with a blue door and a yellow window. A large green palm tree stands prominently in the middle ground, along with several smaller green trees.
